^(C) The Barclays Capital US Aggregate Bond Index (also known as Bloomberg Barclays US Aggregate Bond Index) covers the USD-denominated, investment-grade, fixed rate, taxable bond market of SEC-registered securities whose composition is different from the Fund. Municipal bonds, and Treasury Inflation-Protected Securities are excluded, due to tax treatment issues. The index includes Treasury securities, Government agency bonds, Mortgage-backed bonds, Corporate bonds, and a small amount of foreign bonds traded in U.S.

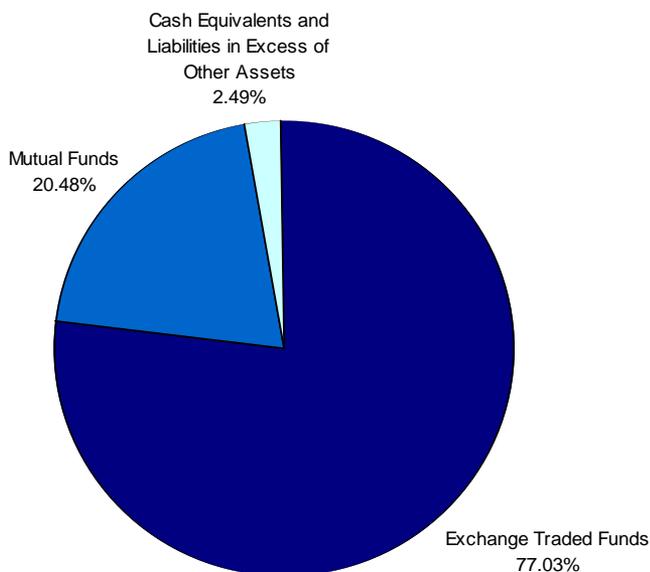

^(D) The Standard & Poor's 500 is a market capitalization-weighted dominated by blue-chip stocks and is an unmanaged group of stocks whose composition is different from the Fund. Investors cannot invest directly in an index.

CURRENT PERFORMANCE MAY BE LOWER OR HIGHER THAN THE PERFORMANCE DATA QUOTED. TO OBTAIN PERFORMANCE DATA CURRENT TO THE MOST RECENT MONTH END, PLEASE CALL 1-877-385-2720. This information is also available on the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Disclosure of Expenses (Unaudited)

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, including sales charges (loads) on purchase payments; and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees; distribution and/or service (12b-1) fees; and other Fund expenses. You will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers, returned checks, and stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC, the Fund's transfer agent and IRA accounts will be charged an $8.00 annual maintenance fee. Additionally, your account will be indirectly charged the expenses of the underlying funds. This Example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The Example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the period April 1, 2017 through September 30, 2017.

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in this Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as sales charges (loads), IRA maintenance fees described above and expenses of underlying funds. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative cost of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your cost could have been higher.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
NEIMAN TACTICAL INCOME FUND

September 30, 2017

(Unaudited)

1.) ORGANIZATION

Neiman Tactical Income Fund (the "Fund") is a non-diversified series of the Neiman Funds (the "Trust"), an open-end management investment company. The Trust was organized in Ohio as a business trust on January 3, 2003 and may offer shares of beneficial interest in a number of separate series, each series representing a distinct fund with its own investment objectives and policies. As of September 30, 2017, there are four series authorized by the Trust. The Fund (Class A) commenced operations on June 29, 2012 and currently offers Class A shares. Class A shares are subject to an initial maximum sales charge of 5.75% imposed at the time of purchase. The sales charge declines as the amount purchased increases, in accordance with the Fund's prospectus. The Fund's primary investment objective is total return with capital preservation as a secondary objective. The Fund pursues its investment objectives using a fund-of-funds strategy by investing in open-end investment companies, including mutual funds and exchange traded funds. Neiman Funds Management, LLC is the adviser to the Fund (the "Adviser") and the sub-adviser to the Fund is Absolute Capital Management, LLC (the "Sub-Adviser" or "Absolute Capital").

2.) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services - Investment Companies. The financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). The Fund follows the significant accounting policies described in this section.

SECURITY VALUATION

All investments in securities are recorded at their estimated fair value, as described in Note 3.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

The Fund's policy is to continue to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code that are applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. It is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, prior to the end of the calendar year, dividends sufficient to satisfy excise tax requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. This Internal Revenue Code requirement may cause an excess of distributions over the book year-end accumulated income. In addition, it is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, after the end of the fiscal year, any remaining net investment income and net realized capital gains.

The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of certain tax positions only where the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on returns filed for its open tax years. The Fund identifies its major tax jurisdictions as U.S. Federal and State tax authorities; however the Fund is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the six month period ended September 30, 2017, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS

Distributions to shareholders, which are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The treatment for financial reporting purposes of distributions made to shareholders during the year from net investment income or net realized capital gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expense, or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of the net assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations, or net asset values per share of the Fund.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

OTHER

The Fund records security transactions based on trade date for financial statement purposes. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date, and interest income is recognized on an accrual basis. The Fund uses the specific identification method in computing gain or loss on the sale of investment securities. Capital gain distributions from underlying investments are recorded on the ex-date. Long-term capital gain distributions are recorded as capital gain distributions from investment companies, and short-term capital gain distributions are recorded as dividend income. Withholding taxes on foreign dividends have been provided for in accordance with the Fund's understanding of the applicable country's tax rules and rates.

EXPENSES

Expenses incurred by the Trust that don't relate to a specific fund of the Trust are allocated pro-rata to the funds in the Trust based on the total number of funds in the Trust at the time the expense was incurred or by another appropriate method.

3.) SECURITIES VALUATIONS

The Fund utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of most of its investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of inputs are:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety, is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

A description of the valuation techniques applied to the Fund's major categories of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis follows.

Equity securities (including exchange traded funds). Equity securities generally are valued by using market quotations, but may be valued on the basis of prices furnished by a pricing service when the Adviser believes such prices accurately reflect the fair market value of such securities. Securities that are traded on any stock exchange or on the NASDAQ over-the-counter market are generally valued by the pricing service at the last quoted sale price. Lacking a last sale price, an equity security is generally valued by the pricing service at its last bid price. Generally, if the security is traded in an active market and is valued at the last sale price, the security is categorized as a level 1 security. When market quotations are not readily available, when the Adviser determines that the market quotation or the price provided by the pricing service does not accurately reflect the current market value, or when restricted securities are being valued, such securities are valued as determined in good faith by the Adviser, subject to review of the Board of Trustees (the "Trustees" or the "Board") and are categorized in level 2 or level 3, when appropriate.

Mutual funds. Mutual funds are valued at the net asset value as reported by the underlying fund and are classified in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. The underlying mutual funds value securities in their portfolios for which market quotations are readily available at their market values (generally the last reported sale price) and all other securities and assets at their fair value by the methods established by the boards of the underlying funds.

Money market funds. Shares of money market funds are valued at net asset value and are classified in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

In accordance with the Trust's good faith pricing guidelines, the Adviser is required to consider all appropriate factors relevant to the value of securities for which it has determined other pricing sources are not available or reliable as described above. There is no single standard for determining fair value, since fair value depends upon the circumstances of each individual case. As a general principle, the current fair value of an issue of securities being valued by the Adviser would appear to be the amount which the owner might reasonably expect to receive for them upon their current sale. Methods which are in accordance with this principle may, for example, be based on (i) a multiple of earnings; (ii) a discount from market of a similar freely traded security (including a derivative security or a basket of securities traded on other markets, exchanges or among dealers); or (iii) yield to maturity with respect to debt issues, or a combination of these and other methods.

The following table summarizes the inputs used to value the Fund's assets measured at fair value as of September 30, 2017:

Valuation Inputs of Assets	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Total	$10,063,337	$0	$0	$10,063,337

The Fund did not hold any level 3 assets during the six month period ended September 30, 2017. There were no transfers into or out of level 1 and level 2 during the six month period ended September 30, 2017. It is the Fund's policy to consider transfers into or out of the levels as of the end of the reporting period.

The Fund did not invest in derivative instruments during the six month period ended September 30, 2017.

4.) INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

The Trust, on behalf of the Fund, entered into an Investment Advisory Agreement with Neiman Funds Management LLC to serve as the investment adviser of the Fund. Under the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Adviser manages the investment portfolio of the Fund, subject to policies adopted by the Trust's Trustees. The Adviser, at its own expense and without reimbursement from the Trust, furnishes office space and all necessary office facilities, equipment and executive personnel necessary for managing the assets of the Fund. The Adviser also pays the salaries and fees of all of its officers and employees that serve as officers and trustees of the Trust. For its services, the Adviser receives a fee of 1.00% of the Fund's average daily net assets.

Absolute Capital Management, LLC is the sub-adviser of the Fund makes the day-to-day investment decisions and continuously reviews, supervises and administers the Fund's investment program. As full compensation for all services rendered, the Adviser, not the Fund, pays the Sub-Adviser a sub-advisory fee.

The fee waiver will automatically terminate on July 31, 2018 unless it is renewed by the Adviser. The Adviser may not terminate the fee waiver or expense reimbursement before July 31, 2018.

5.) DISTRIBUTION AND SHAREHOLDER SERVICING PLAN

The Trust, with respect to the Fund, has adopted a plan pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act (the "Plan") that allows the Fund to pay distribution and other fees ("12b-1 fees") for the sale and distribution of the Fund's shares and for services provided to shareholders by Northern Lights Distributors, LLC (the "Distributor") or the Adviser. The Plan permits the Fund to pay the Distributor and the Adviser 12b-1 fees as compensation for their services and expenses in connection with the distribution of Fund shares. The Distributor must approve all payments made under the Plan and may pay any or all amounts received under the 12b-1 Plan to other persons, including the Adviser, for any distribution, promotional or shareholder support services. Up to 0.25% of the 12b-1 fee may be used as a shareholder servicing fee. The Class A shares pay an annual 12b-1 fee equal to 0.25% of its average daily net assets. During the six month period ended September 30, 2017, there were $13,573 of 12b-1 fees incurred by Class A. As of September 30, 2017, the Fund had an accrued liability of $6,602 which represents undistributed 12b-1 fees accrued under the Plan and available for payment of qualified expenses under the Plan.

6.) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

During the six month period ended September 30, 2017, certain owners of the Adviser received financial benefits from the sale of Fund shares through Peak Brokerage Services, LLC ("Peak"), a FINRA registered broker/dealer. During the six month period ended September 30, 2017, those individuals earned $18 resulting from the sale of the Fund's Class A shares in their roles with Peak. Additionally, during the six month period ended September 30, 2017, those individuals earned $140 associated with trailing commissions of the Fund's Class A, which are paid from available class specific accrued 12b-1 fees.

Also, Daniel Neiman, in his role as Chief Compliance Officer of the Fund, received $2,006 for his services during the six month period ended September 30, 2017. Mr. D. 1.) APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

At a meeting held on May 17, 2017, the Board of Trustees (the "Board" or the "Trustees") considered the continuance of the Management Agreement between the Trust and the Adviser (the "Agreement"), on behalf of the Neiman Tactical Income Fund (the "Fund" or "Tactical Income"). Legal counsel reminded the Board of the memorandum provided by Thompson Hine LLP and again explained that, in consideration of the continuance of the management agreement, the Board should review as much information as is reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the contract and determine whether it is fair to the Fund and its shareholders. Legal counsel also explained that the Adviser has provided information to the Trustees for evaluation of the continuance of the Agreement.

In renewing the Agreement, the Board of Trustees received materials from the Adviser (the "Report") addressing the following factors: (i) the investment performance of the Fund and the Adviser; (ii) the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Adviser to the Fund; (iii) the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by the Adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund; (iv) the extent to which economies of scale will be realized as the Fund grows; and (v) whether the fee level reflect these economies of scale for the benefit of shareholders.

As to the performance of the Fund, the Report included information regarding the performance of the Fund compared to a group of funds of similar size, style and objective (the "Peer Group"). The Trustees noted that the Adviser oversees Absolute Capital Management, LLC (the Fund's sub-adviser) and that performance is attributable almost entirely to Absolute Capital Management, LLC. All performance data was through the period ended March 31, 2017. The Report also included comparative performance information for the Fund's benchmark index, the Bloomberg Barclays Capital US Aggregate Bond Index. The Trustees noted that the Fund performed within the range of its Peer Group during the twelve-month period ended March 31, 2017. Class A shares' twelve-month and three-year annualized returns underperformed its Peer Group average. The report further indicated that Class A shares' twelve-month annualized returns outperformed the Bloomberg Barclays Capital US Aggregate Bond Index and three-year annualized returns underperformed the Bloomberg Barclays Capital US Aggregate Bond Index. It was also noted that the Class A shares' (without a sales charge) outperformed the Index since inception. The Trustees concluded that the Fund's performance was consistent with their expectations.

As to the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Adviser, the Trustees analyzed the Adviser's experience and capabilities. The representatives of the Adviser summarized the information provided to the Board. The Trustees discussed the Adviser's financial condition and the portfolio manager's background and investment management experience. The Board noted that there were no changes in the personnel managing the Fund or in the business or organization of the Adviser. The representatives of the Adviser reviewed and discussed with the Board the Adviser's Form ADV and the Rule 17j-1 Code of Ethics certifications. The representatives of the Adviser also discussed the compliance services provided to the Fund by the Adviser. The Trustees discussed the quality of the Adviser's compliance efforts. The representatives of the Adviser discussed the Adviser's financial stability. After reviewing the foregoing and further information from the Adviser, the Board concluded that the quality, extent, and nature of the services being provided by the Adviser were satisfactory and adequate.

As to the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by the Adviser from the relationship with the Fund, it was noted that the Adviser is waiving expenses or subsidizing the Fund due to the current asset level. Materials submitted by the Adviser showed that the Adviser has waived fees or reimbursed the Fund's expenses to limit the Fund's operating expenses (with certain exclusions) to 1.45% of its average daily net assets for Class A shares. The Adviser provided to the Trustees a profit & loss statement and a balance sheet, both dated as of March 31, 2017. In addition, materials submitted by the Adviser showed that for the twelve month period ended March 31, 2017 the Adviser did not realize any profits, but took on a loss, after indirect expenses related to the Tactical Income, of approximately -10% of the Tactical Income's gross management fees. The Trustees noted the gross loss does not include any imputed oversight personnel expense, which would significantly increase losses and concluded the Adviser's profits, even after disregarding any imputed marketing expenses, are not excessive. The Trustees then discussed the Adviser's financial condition. Mr. H. Neiman stated that as president and majority owner of the Adviser he has consistently funded the Adviser with sufficient capital to pay all outstanding amounts "due from adviser" to keep the Fund current in the payment of the expenses of the Fund.

Turning to the level of the management fee, the Trustees were presented with a comparative analysis of advisory fees and expense ratios based on publicly available data and drawn from the Peer Group for the Fund. Included in the comparisons were funds with similar asset ranges. The Trustees noted that Tactical Income's Class A audited expense ratio of 1.45% was higher than the average audited expense ratio for the Peer Group, but within the range of the Peer Group. Tactical Income's net expense ratio (which includes acquired fund fees and expenses) of 1.76% for Class A was higher than the average net expense ratio (which includes acquired fund fees and expenses) for the Peer Group, but within the Peer Group range. The Trustees also noted that the management fee of 1.00% was above the Peer Group average, but within the range of the Peer Group. The Trustees also recognized that the Adviser is capping the Fund's expense ratios, and therefore the net management fee may be substantially less than the gross management fee depending on the net assets of the Fund. Having considered the comparative data as described above, the Trustees concluded that the Fund's management fees and expense ratios were reasonable.

Additionally, the Trustees then reviewed the fees received by Mr. Wiggle and Mr. Lomas, for the period of April 1, 2016 through March 31, 2017, in their capacity as Registered Reps with Peak Brokerage Services, LLC (Peak) and/or Registered Reps in their Peak branch office(s), and/or through their prior affiliation with NEXT Financial Group, LLC. It was noted that they have received approximately $599, collectively, in sales charges and trailer fees related to Tactical Income. The Trustees concluded that these fees were reasonable and accepted the report.

As for potential economies of scale, the Trustees discussed and considered information regarding whether there have been economies of scale with respect to the management of the Fund, whether the Fund has appropriately benefited from any economies of scale, and whether there is potential for realization of any further economies of scale. The Trustees agreed they would revisit the issue of economies of scale with the Adviser when Fund assets grow to the point that a further assessment of any realized economies of scale can be made. Again, the Trustees noted that the Adviser has contractually agreed to waive the management fee and reimburse expenses to the extent necessary to limit annual operating expenses of the Fund and noted that as the Fund grows the expense ratios should come down.

Next, the independent Trustees met in executive session to discuss the continuation of the Agreement. The officers of the Trust and interested Trustees were excused during this discussion.

Upon reconvening the meeting, the Trustees reported that after further consideration (including a majority of the independent Trustees), they were satisfied with the performance of the Fund. They concluded that the nature and extent of services provided by the Adviser was consistent with the Board's expectations. The Trustees also concluded that the Adviser has sufficient resources and had provided quality advisory services to the Fund. The Board agreed that the management fee was reasonable and that the Adviser was not overly profitable. The Trustees agreed that the fee waivers for the Fund capped the expenses and that additional economies of scale would not be a material consideration until the Fund is substantially larger, but noted that the Adviser was committed to reducing fees as economies of scale are realized. It was the consensus of the Trustees, including the independent Trustees, that the renewal of the Agreement would be in the best interest of the Fund.

2.) RENEWAL OF SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENT

At a meeting held on May 17, 2017, the Board of Trustees consider the renewal of the Sub-Advisory Agreement (the "Agreement") between the Neiman Funds Management LLC (the "Adviser") and Absolute Capital Management, LLC (the "Sub-Adviser"), with respect to the Neiman Tactical Income Fund (the "Fund"). Legal Counsel reminded the Board of the memorandum provided by Thompson Hine LLP and explained that, in consideration of the continuance of the sub-advisory agreement, the Board should review as much information as is reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the contract and determine whether it is fair to the Fund and its shareholders. Legal Counsel also explained that the Sub-Adviser had provided information to the Trustees necessary for evaluation of the Agreement.

In reviewing the Agreement, the Board of Trustees received materials from the Sub-Adviser addressing the following factors: (i) the investment performance of the Sub-Adviser; (ii) the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by the Sub-Adviser to the Fund; (iii) the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by the Sub-Adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund; (iv) the extent to which economies of scale will be realized as the Fund grows; and (v) whether the fee levels reflect these economies of scale to the benefit of shareholders.

The Board reviewed and discussed the background and investment management experience of the Sub-Adviser's professional staff. They reviewed the firm's history, background and financial industry experience. The Board then reviewed and discussed the investment strategy of the Sub-Adviser, noting that the strategy relies mainly on tactical moves between high yield securities and other investments. In addition to the performance review of the Fund, the Board reviewed the performance of the Sub-Adviser's composite account, which employs a somewhat similar strategy and found long-term performance to be generally consistent with that of the Fund.

The Trustees then reviewed the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Sub-Adviser, and analyzed the Sub-Adviser's experience and capabilities. The representatives of the Sub-Adviser reviewed and discussed with the Board the Sub-Adviser's Form ADV, internal compliance policies and the 17j-1 certifications, each of which had been previously provided to the Board. They also reviewed the Sub-Adviser's financial information and discussed the firm's ability to meet its obligations under the Agreement. The Board concluded that the nature and extent of the services provided by the Sub-Adviser were consistent with their expectations. The Trustees also concluded that the Sub-Adviser has the resources to provide quality advisory services to the Fund.

The Trustees then reviewed the fees paid to the Sub-Adviser, as well as the Sub-Adviser's profits. It was noted that under the Agreement, all fees paid to the Sub-Adviser are paid by the Adviser. The representatives of the Adviser noted that, under the Agreement, the Adviser pays the Sub-Adviser a sub-advisory fee, computed daily and payable monthly, at an annual rate equal to 0% of the gross management fee paid by the Fund to the Adviser (the "Gross Management Fee") during months when the Fund's average daily net assets are equal to or less than $25 million. During the months when the Fund's average daily net assets are greater than $25 million, but equal to or less than $100 million, the sub-advisory fee will be equal to 25% of the Gross Management Fee. During the months when the Fund's average daily net assets are greater than $100 million, the sub-advisory fee will be equal to a rate of 30% of the Gross Management Fee. The representatives of the Adviser noted that the current Gross Management fee is set at 1.00%. In reviewing the Reports provided to them, the Trustees noted that in the calendar year ended March 31, 2017 the Sub-Adviser received a very modest profit in terms of actual dollars from its service as the Fund's sub-adviser because as of June 2016 Fund assets fell below $25 million, the threshold at which the Sub-Adviser receives a management fee. They then reviewed a table showing advisory fees paid by comparable funds (the "Peer Group") and determined that the sub-advisory fee was lower than the Peer Group average and was reasonable. The Board also concluded that, in consideration of the asset floor of $25 million to which the Fund had to grow before the Sub-Adviser received any sub-advisory fees, the Sub-Adviser's profitability was at an acceptable level, in light of the extent and quality of the services being provided to the Fund.

As for potential economies of scale, the Board observed that the Agreement does not contain any breakpoints that reduce the fee rate on assets above specified levels. However, the Trustees remarked that the sub-advisory fees are not paid by the Fund, but by the Adviser, and further, the Sub-Adviser was not paid until the Fund's average daily net assets were equal to or greater than $25 million in a given month. Additionally, because the Sub-Adviser is receiving a percentage of the Adviser's fee, the Sub-Adviser's fee rate will decrease as the Adviser reduces its management fee. The Trustees also recognized that other sub-advisory agreements with competitor funds do not always contain breakpoints. Consequently, the Trustees concluded that the absence of breakpoints was acceptable under the circumstances.

Next, the independent Trustees met in executive session with counsel to discuss the approval of the Agreement. The officers of the Trust and interested Trustees were excused during this discussion. Upon reconvening, it was the Board's consensus (including a majority of the independent Trustees) that the fees paid to the Sub-Adviser pursuant to the Agreement were reasonable, that the overall arrangements provided under the terms of the Agreement were reasonable business arrangements, and that the approval of the Agreement was in the best interest of the Fund's shareholders.
